The results of this analysis must be shown in the notice of call of the Meeting convened to appoint directors so that shareholders, in choosing candidates, can take into account the professional skills required. This is notwithstanding the possibility for shareholders to make their own assessments on the optimal composition of the Board of Directors and to bring forward candidates commensurate with these, explaining any differences with regard to the analysis carried out by the Board. Subsequently, the Board of Directors checks the compliance between the qualitative and quantitative composition deemed optimal and the one actually resulting from the appointments process.

The Members of the Board of Directors are elected using the list system in which a minimum of three and maximum of nine candidates must be listed in sequential order. The candidate at sequential number "1" of each list shall also be the candidate appointed as chair of the Board of Directors.

The lists indicate which directors are in possession of the requirements of independence stipulated by law and these By-laws. Each list must contain at least three candidates, of which at least two are in possession of the requirements of independence established by Law and the By-laws. Moreover, each list must include candidates of different genders, including for individual independent candidates, according to what is stated in the Meeting call notice, so as to enable the Board of Directors to be comprised pursuant to current regulations regarding gender equality.

The ownership of the minimum share required to submit the lists referred to in this paragraph shall be determined with regard to the shares registered to the shareholder on the day when these lists are deposited at the company's headquarters. In order to prove ownership of the number of shares required to submit lists, members putting forward lists have to submit or send to the registered office a copy of the appropriate certificate issued by an authorised intermediary proving ownership of the number of shares required for the submission of the list at least twenty-one days before the Meeting called to approve the appointment of the members of the Board of Directors. Each list submitted must include: a) information regarding the shareholders who have presented the list and the percentage of shares held; b) the declarations in which each candidate accepts the nomination (in the case of candidates positioned at sequential number "1" on each list, they also accept applicants for Chair of the Board) and declare, under their own responsibility that there are no causes of ineligibility or incompatibility, and that the requirements of professionalism and integrity and any other requirement stipulated under current laws and these By-laws for undertaking the position are met; c) declarations of independence issued pursuant to the applicable legislative, regulatory and statutory provisions; as well as d) the CV of each candidate, containing extensive information of the individual's personal and professional characteristics, indicating for which theoretical profile he/she is suitable and the positions of administration and control covered.

Lists presented without complying with the foregoing provisions shall be deemed as not submitted.

Each shareholder has the right to vote for one list. Where a vote is made for several lists, the vote shall be deemed as not having been cast for any of them. The election of the Board of Directors shall be made as follows:

The loss of the requirements for the position will entail revocation, with it being specified that the loss of the independence requirements mentioned above in relation to a director, notwithstanding the obligation to immediately notify the Board of Directors, shall not lead to revocation if the requirements are met by the remaining minimum number of directors pursuant to these By-laws.

If the candidates elected in the manner described above do not ensure the appointment of a number of directors who meet the independence requirements provided for above equal to the minimum number established by law and these By-laws in relation to the total number of directors, the non-independent candidate elected last in sequential order in the list that received the highest number of votes referred to in subparagraph a) of paragraph 10.2, paragraph eleven paragraph, will be replaced by the first independent candidate in sequential order not elected from the same list, or, failing that, by the first independent candidate in sequential order not elected from other lists, according to the number of votes obtained by each. This substitution procedure will be followed until the number of independent directors to be appointed is met.

Without prejudice to compliance with the minimum number of directors in possession of the independent requirements as stipulated above, where the candidates elected in the manner indicated above in the composition of the Board of Directors do not ensure compliance with the regulations in force in relation to gender equality, the candidate of the gender most elected as last in sequential order in the least who has secured the highest number of votes pursuant to letter a) of subsection 10.2, paragraph eleven, shall be replaced by the first candidate of the gender least represented based on the non-elected sequential order of the same list, or, failing this, by the first candidate of the gender least represented on the basis of the non-elected sequential order of the other lists, according to the number of votes obtained by each. This replacement procedure will be carried out unless the Board of Directors is compliant with the current regulations in respect of gender equality.

Where no list is submitted or allowed, the Meeting shall resolve according to the legal majority without observing the procedure referred to above. This is notwithstanding, however, different and other provisions provided under mandatory and statutory laws. In any event, there shall be compliance with the minimum number of independent directors and the current laws on gender equality. For the appointment of Directors who for whatever reason are not nominated pursuant to the procedures given above, the Meeting shall resolve by legal majority voting so as to ensure that the composition of the Board of Directors is compliant to the law and to these By-laws, and also complies with current laws in respect of gender equality.

10.4 The members of the Administrative Body shall remain in post for three years (expiring at the same time as the Meeting convened to approve the accounts relating to the last year of their post) or for a lesser period which may be fixed by the Meeting and the time of appointment. Directors may be re-elected.

Where during the course of the period one or more directors are missing, provided that the majority remain comprised of directors appointed by the Meeting, the Board of Directors can arrange for their substitution through a resolution approved by the Board of Auditors in accordance with what is indicated below:

- a) The Board of Directors shall arrange substitution using the persons belonging to the same list as the one to which the outgoing director belonged and the Meeting, pursuant to the first subsection of article 2386 of the Civil Code, resolves by legal majority voting in compliance with the same criterion;

Pursuant to article 2386, subsection one of the Civil Code, directors appointed in this way shall remain in post until the next Meeting and those appointed by the Meeting shall remain in post for time that the directors they replaced would have remained in post.

Lists which have a number of candidates equal to or greater than three must also include candidates of a different gender, in accordance with what is stated in the Meeting call of notice, so as to allow the Meeting to be set up in accordance with current laws regarding gender equality. The holding of this minimum share necessary to submit lists is determined having regard to the shares which are registered to the shareholder on the day in which these lists are submitted to the company's head office. In order to prove the holding of the number of shares required to present lists, shareholders who present or are involved in submitting lists, must submit to deliver to the registered office a copy of the appropriate certificate issued by an authorised intermediary pursuant to law, issued within the period laid down for the publication of the lists. For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, entities, even those with a corporate status, which exercise direct or indirect control pursuant to Article 93 of Legislative Decree 24 February 1998 n. 58 over the shareholder in question and all the companies controlled directly or indirectly by this entity are deemed to belong to the same group.

In the event of any breach of these provisions, regard shall not be had, pursuant to the application of what is set out in this article, of the position of the shareholder in question in relation of none of the lists.

Notwithstanding the incompatibilities provided by law, candidates acting as auditors in another 5 (five) issuers or else in violation of the limits on the cumulation of positions possible set out under applicable legal or statutory provisions may not be included in the lists. Outgoing auditors may be re-elected. The lists must be sent to the company's head office at least 25 (twenty-five) days prior to the one planned for the Meeting called upon to resolve on the appointment of the control body and be made available to the public at the registered office, on the Company's internet site and with the other means stipulated under applicable legal and regulatory provisions at least 21 (twenty-one) days prior to the one fixed for the Meeting. This shall be mentioned in the notice of call. Where only one list has been submitted within this period of 25 (twenty-five) days, i.e. only lists have been presented by inter-related shareholders pursuant to current legislative and statutory provisions, lists may be submitted up to the third day subsequent to this date, unless a different period is stipulated under applicable legal and statutory provisions. In this case, shareholders who individually or jointly are owners of shares representing half of the capital threshold previously identified shall be entitled to submit lists.

Together with each list, within the periods indicated above, the following information must be submitted: i) the information relating to the shareholders who have submitted the list and the shareholding percentage held; ii) the declarations by which the individual candidates accept the application and solemnly swear that there are no grounds for ineligibility or incompatibility, including the limit of the cumulation of positions, or the requirements legally and statutorily prescribed for the respective tasks; iii) a declaration by the shareholders other than those holding, including jointly, a relative controlling or majority shareholder, attesting to the absence of ties with the latter stipulated under applicable laws, as well as (iv) the CV of each candidate, containing extensive information on the personal and professional characteristics of each candidate and indication any management and control tasks covered in other companies.

The lists submitted which do not satisfy the provisions stated above shall be void.

Auditors are elected as follows:

- a) from the list of those obtaining the highest number of votes, based on the sequential order in which they are listed in the sections of the list, two statutory and one alternate auditors are selected;
- b) the remaining member of the statutory auditor and the other alternate auditor are selected, based on the sequential order in which they are listed in the sections of the lists, from the second list obtaining the highest number of votes at the Meeting and which is not in any way corrected, not even indirectly, with the list mentioned under paragraph a) and/or with the shareholders who have submitted or voted the majority list;
- c) where the votes between the lists are tied, the one presented by shareholders in possession of the higher share, or else the highest number of shareholders shall prevail;

- d) where the Board of Auditors thus constituted does not ensure compliance with current laws in respect of gender equality, the last candidate elected from the majority list shall be replaced by the first candidate not elected from the same list belonging to the least represented gender or, failing this, by the first candidate not elected from the successive lists. Where this is not possible, the statutory member of the least represented gender is appointed by the Meeting with legal majority voting, to replace the last candidate from the majority list;
- e) where a single list or no list is presented, all the candidates for the positions indicated in the list or else those voted by the Meeting shall be elected the statutory and alternate auditors, provided that these achieve the majority of votes expressed at the Meeting. This is notwithstanding compliance with the regulations in force in respect of gender equality.

The chairmanship of the Board of Auditors is assumed by the first candidate on the second list who has obtained the most votes, if presented and allowed.

Where the legal and statutory requirements are not met, the auditor shall lose office.

Where an auditor is replaced, the alternate auditor belonging to the one outgoing shall take over. If the substitution does not allow compliance with the rules on gender equality, the Meeting must be convened as soon as possible in order to ensure compliance with this law.

When the Meeting is to appoint statutory and/or alternate auditors needed to make up the Board of Auditors, it shall proceed as follows: when it is to replace the auditors elected in the majority list, the appointment comes about on the basis of majority voting without any constraints from lists; when, on the other hand, auditors elected from the minority list are to be replaced, the Meeting replaces them by majority voting, choosing from the candidates indicated in the list to which the auditor to be replaced belongs, or in the minority list which won the second highest number of votes. Where the application for these procedures does not, for any reason, allow the replacement of the auditors designated by the minority shareholders, the Meeting shall proceed on the basis of majority voting; however, in the ascertaining of the results of this latter vote, the votes from shareholders who, according to the communication given pursuant to current rules, hold, including indirectly or even jointly with other shareholders belonging to a relevant shareholders' agreement pursuant to article 122 of legislative decree no 58 dated 24 February 1998, the majority of votes to be exercised at the Meeting, as well as shareholders who control, are controlled or are subject to joint control, shall not be calculated. The new appointments will cease together with those in post. In any event, the obligation to comply with current regulations in terms of gender equality shall remain firm.

The ordinary Meeting sets the annual payment due to each auditor pursuant to the regulations currently in force. Auditors shall also be reimbursed, on a lump-sum basis for the expenses incurred in their work.

18.6 Auditors shall not be paid any fee based on the financial instruments and linked to the financial management results.

18.14 The Board of Auditors, which must meet at least every ninety days, is convened by the Chair of the Board of Auditors by means of a notice to be sent at least eight days before the meeting to each Auditor and, in the event of an emergency, at least three days in advance.
